The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1851.

The FOURTH was not celebrated in this place, except by the German citizens—of whom a large procession, including a goodly array of ladies, was formed at nine o'clock, and after promenading round the city, went to Ewing's Grove, where the exercises of the day were performed.

At New Haven, in Adams Township, they had a real old-fashioned celebration, which was attended by quite a number of citizens of Fort Wayne. The assemblage was large, and graced by the presence of a number of the fair sex. The enthusiasm and patriotism of the New Haveners was unbounded, and every thing was done in the best and most spirited manner.

A large procession of ladies and gentlemen was formed, and marched to a pleasant shady grove where the Declaration was read by W. W. Carson, Esq. of Fort Wayne; after which E. F. Colerick, Esq. delivered an appropriate patriotic address. The company were then marshalled to a long table, under a leafy canopy of boughs and green bushes, which literally bent beneath the weight of the viands furnished gratis by the liberality of the citizens of the place. A number of patriotic toasts and sentiments were given, and the company dispersed highly satisfied with the manner in which they had spent the day.

We will publish the toasts in our next.

FAIR.—The Fair of the ladies of the Berry Street Methodist Church, yesterday, realized $275. It is to be appropriated towards building a residence for the minister. A quantity of used articles will be offered at auction to-day, by which the proceeds will probably be increased to $300 or upwards.

Mr. Brenton, finding his pretence that Judge Borden was afraid of him would not answer any longer, as the people had become aware of his falsehood, has at length consented to canvass the remainder of the district in company with him. A list of the joint appointments will be found in another column.

The Times is mistaken or misinformed in saying that the joint appointments proposed by Judge Borden would interfere with those already made by his Rev. competitor. Mr. Brenton's appointments only extended to the 3d of July, and Mr. Borden proposed that the joint appointments should commence on the 7th. It would be better to acknowledge the fact that Mr. Brenton did seek to escape speaking in company with his competitor at once, and not seek to evade it by such subterfuges. Truth will out.

THOMAS WASHBURN of Whitley has been nominated as democratic candidate for Senator from Whitley, Kosciusko, and Noble. Mr. Washburn is a thorough democrat and a popular man; and we hope may be elected. Kosciusko has been rather a dark and benighted county, but we hope it is not now strong enough to overcome the democratic majority of Whitley and Noble.

ANOTHER CIRCUS.—We shall have another circus—Spaulding, Rogers, and Van Orden's—here on Monday the 14th inst. The company is said to be a first rate one, and includes several female equestrians of acknowledged celebrity, who cannot fail to draw a large audience.

Clock in Lima, Ohio.—We learn by the Lima Argus that great excitement and alarm exists in that place in consequence of the sudden deaths, supposed by cholera, of Mr. E. S. Linn, his wife, and an infant daughter; also, Mr. Walmsley, a young man who had attended on Mr. Linn.

Our citizens should be careful in their diet, and have all impurities, filth, stagnant water &c. promptly removed from their premises.—Prevention is better than cure.

✓ This number completes the 11th volume of the Sentinel. We merely allude to the fact, to give our subscribers a hint that it is a very suitable time for them to be squaring up their accounts and commencing anew—a duty which some of them have neglected for years, and others have never made any attempt at performing since they first subscribed—if the act of taking a paper without paying for it can be called subscribing.

We shall wait a week or two, and see what effect this article may have on the consciences of the delinquents. If they do not show some signs of reform and repentance, we shall strike off the names of some of the most hardened sinners, and either send their accounts to an officer for collection, or publish them in the paper—perhaps both.

The beginning of the new volume will be a good time to commence subscriptions. Under the new postage law, papers will now be carried in the mail at five cents per quarter to any office out of the county, and within 50 miles of Fort Wayne, so that the present is a very favorable time to subscribe. We shall have room on our books for a number of new subscribers, to fill the places of the reprobrates we intend striking off, and would be obliged if some of our friends would exert themselves a little and induce their neighbors to subscribe. The circulation and usefulness of the Sentinel might be greatly extended by these means.

We are informed that as Rev. Mr. Brenton's prospects wane, he becomes, what the Times would term more "arrogant and blustery ring." Some of his late speeches consisted almost entirely of slang and abuse against his competitor. "Bad sign."

Will Mr. Brenton Resign?—The Times, instead of answering our inquiry whether Mr. Brenton intends resigning his office as Register of the U. S. Land Office at this place, inquires whether Mr. Borden intends resigning his Judgeship. To this we have already replied that we do not know, but think that he ought to—and if he takes the advice of his friends he will. This way of answering the question whether Mr. Brenton will resign, by inquiring if Judge Borden will, is a mere evasion. So much has been said by whigs about the impropriety of United States Office-holders interfering with elections, that the public would like to know whether Mr. Brenton will resign; or if not, have some explanation how it happens that the Rev. gentleman is to be made an exception to the whig rule, and not only allowed to interfere with elections, but actually to be the whig candidate for Congress.

Will the Times inform us, without further evasion, whether Mr. Brenton will resign; and if not will it state the grounds on which he is to be exempted from the operation of the whig rule? We are to have a severe conflict during the coming session of Congress, between the friends of the Union and the advocates of secession or separation. To defeat the latter, but unquestionably sound Union men should be elected to Congress, or retained in any office under the Government, of either honor, profit or trust.—Louisville Courier.

The Indiana State Sentinel, of 21st inst., asserts with great confidence that the Rev. Samuel Brenton, the Register of the Land Office at Fort Wayne in that State, is in favor of the "unconditional repeal of the fugitive Slave law." If this is true, we hope the fact will be made known to Mr. Stewart, the Secretary of the Interior, who we have no doubt would unhesitatingly displace him. No such "higher law" gentry should be either countenanced by the Government, or trusted by the people. We are to have a severe conflict during the coming session of Congress, between the friends of the Union and the advocates of secession or separation. To defeat the latter, but unquestionably sound Union men should be elected to Congress, or retained in any office under the Government, of either honor, profit or trust.—Louisville Courier.

The Injection Case.—The application to remove the injunction restraining the counties of Wyandot and Crawford, Ohio, from subscribing stock to the Ohio and Indiana Railroad, was not decided at the late terms of the court in these counties. It was referred to the Court in which sits in December next.

This day will not, it is expected, materially retard the construction of this great work.

* Not nominated in Convention.

Later from Texas.—The N. O. Picayune of the 17th, has advices from Galveston to the 13th, and from Brownsville to the 4th. The crops in some of the interior counties are suffering for want of rain.

The Galveston Civilian states that McDonald, charged with stealing several thousand dollars from Mr. Tare, at San Antonio, has been made to convict himself of the theft and disgorge the money, by a stratagem—rather a delicate one—of the sheriff. It was agreed between the sheriff and the prisoner that the sheriff should receive the thousand dollars of the stolen money, as a consideration for aiding the thief to escape. The prisoner was to retain the remainder, and the sheriff was to provide him with a fleet horse and arms; he was released from the jail and proceeded to the place of his concealment in company with the thief, the money was disinterred. The thief was then arrested, and unless he finds some other means of escape, will doubtless go to the penitentiary for his pains. The Western Texan doubts the propriety of the sheriff's course in the matter.

Two carpenters, one named Wolf, were murdered at Rio Grande City, on the night of the 22 ult., by blows inflicted on the head with a hammer, while sleeping in a small house rented by them. No traces of the perpetrators of this horrible deed have as yet been discovered.

Fox Oregon—Oregon papers have been received up to the 10th of May.

The accounts from the gold mines on the Klamath all agree that the mines will yield a fair equivalent to the miner. Some beautiful specimens had been discovered, weighing from five dollars to seventy-five dollars.

Gen. Lane, is canvassing for election as delegate to the next Congress.

There were an abundance of ripe strawberries at Portland on the 8th of May.

The newly discovered coal region is said to be inexhaustible, and coal can be delivered on the wharves of the Columbia river at less than ten dollars per ton.

The Western Star says that the last steamer brought quite a number of passengers from the States. Mr. Preston, Surveyor General for Oregon, and family, and Mr. Nelson, Chief Judge of Oregon, are among the number.—Also, five female teachers.

William Kendall, convicted of murder, was executed at Salem on the 18th of April, amid a large concourse of spectators.

Great Tanker Meeting.—The general conference of the Tankers is now in session near New Hope, Augusta county, Va. The Staunton Spectator says:

It is composed of preachers form every part of the United States, where the sect prevails. We were at the meeting, Sunday, the 2d inst.

We understand that the corner stone of the addition to the Capitol, authorized by the late act of Congress, will be laid by the President of the United States, on the 4th of July next, in the presence of such officers of the Government as may then be in the city, and of all citizens who may see fit to assemble to witness the ceremony; and that an address on that occasion will be delivered by the Secretary of State.

This General Conference is the highest judiciary known to the Tunker church, and is held once a year. We believe this is the first time it has been held in Virginia for a number of years.

The Tankers, as a class, constitute a portion of our very best citizens. They are industrious, thrifty, honest, frugal and kind hearted in the extreme.

Sharp Business Transaction—Female Rogue.—A few days since, lady having evidently appeared of respectable gentility about her, stepped into Stewart's fashionable dry goods store on Broadway, New York, and purchased a shawl, priced at $400, and presented a sum of $1,000 bill to the Bank of America to pay for it. The check bore the signature of the cashier, who pronounced it genuine. The change was accordingly given her, and she took the purchased shawl and had proceeded for twenty feet to the place of beginning; and if the same shall fail to sell for a sum sufficient to the amount due on said execution, I will then offer for sale the fee simple of the same at public auction.

W. H. McDONALD, Sh't A. C. July 5, 1851. [§ 30.]

W. H. McDONALD, Sh't A. C. July 5, 1851. [§ 30.]

BATTLES WITH THE KABYLES IN ALGERIA.

Terrible Sluggishness of African war, with a severe loss and dreadful carnage. In the advance of a column five or six thousand strong, on Djibelli, Colonel Arnould is admitted to have sacrificed more soldiers than were lost by Marshal Bugeaud in his two expeditions against the great tribes of the Kabyles, and in all the campaigns of 1845 in Oran and Algiers.

Two companies of the 10th fell into an ambush, and lost two hundred men, with five officers. The whole number killed is stated at three hundred. On the next day after their bloody encounter, the troops had to march between a grisly perspective of heads of their slain comrades, which their ferocious enemies had stuck on poles during the night, to dismay them in their harrassed march. Terrible, on the other hand, has been the retaliation. On the 15th, twelve villages were burned: on the 17th, thirty. When it is remembered that these Kabyles are not mad tribes of Bedouins, but hardy independent mountaineers, who are addicted to agriculture, the destruction of their settlement rouses a strong feeling of compassion.

We refer the question to the editor of the Times, for a full and "by authority" explanation.

[Ed. of Sentinel.]

The Next Congress.

Eighteen States have elected 145 members; of them the Democrats have 78, the Whigs 55, and the Free-soilers 12. There are thirteen States yet to elect. These States were represented in last Congress by 50 Democrats, 27 Whigs, and one Free-soiler (Mr. Julian). Should they do as well in the coming contest, the Democrats will be 145, and the Whigs 50. What we shall do quite as well; but at all events, we may calculate on twenty-five majorities. Should the Presidential election devolve on the next House, of these 18 States, which have already elected their members, the Democrats have a majority. Maine, New Jersey, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Ohio and Delaware, ten. The Whigs have a majority in Massachusetts, Vermont, Florida, Michigan and Missouri. New York, New Hampshire and Rhode Island are equally divided. Of the thirteen States yet to elect, the Democrats will unquestionably carry Virginia, Alabama, Arkansas, Indiana and Texas, which will make 15 States. Of the others, the Democrats have the best chance to carry a majority in Maryland, Louisiana and Tennessee. The Whigs probably carry a majority in North Carolina and Kentucky, and California will most probably divide. In this estimate, Mississippi and Georgia, where the contest is between the Union and Southern rights parties, are left out of the calculation. It is however, most probable that a majority of the Representatives may be elected from these States, will act with the Democratic party.

By this it will be seen that the Democrats will have a majority over all opposition combined in the next House. They will in all probability have a majority of the State, which will secure the election of the Democratic candidate to the Presidency, should the duty of election unfortunately fall upon the House. But there is no prospect that the Whigs can have a majority either in the House of Representatives, or a majority of the States, unless a complete revolution is effected in the States, yet to elect which is not very probable.

The Fort Wayne Sentinel.

SATURDAY, JULY 5, 1851.

The Fourth was not celebrated in this place, except by the German citizens, of whom a large procession, including a gaudy array of ladies, was formed at nine o'clock, and after proceeding round the city, went to Ewing's Grove, where the exercises of the day were performed.

At New Haven, in Adams Township, they had a real old-fashioned celebration, which was attended by quite a number of citizens of Fort Wayne. The assemblage was large, and graced by the presence of a number of the fair sex. The enthusiasm and patriotism of the New Haveners was unbounded, and every thing was done in the best and most spirited manner.

A large procession of ladies and gentlemen was formed, and marched to a pleasant shady grove where the Declaration was read by W. W. Carson, Esq., of Fort Wayne; after which E. F. Colerick, Esq., delivered an appropriate patriotic address. The company were then marshalled to a long table, under a leafy canopy of hounds and green bushes, which literally bent beneath the weight of the viands furnished gratis by the liberality of the citizens of the place. A number of patriotic toasts and sentiments were given, and the company dispersed highly satisfied with the manner in which they had spent the day.

We will publish the toasts in our next.

Fifth.—The Fair of the ladies of the Berry Street Methodist Church yesterday, realized $273. It is to be appropriated towards building a residence for the minister. A quantity of used articles will be offered at auction to-day by which the proceeds will probably be increased to $300 or upwards.

Mr. Brenton, finding his pretense that Judge Borden was afraid he would not receive any longer, as the people had become aware of his falsehood, has at length consented to canvass the remainder of the district in company with him. A list of the joint appointments will be found in another column.

The Times is mistaken or misinformed in saying that the joint appointments proposed by Judge Borden would interfere with those already made by his Rev. competitor. Mr. Brenton's appointments only extended to the 5th of July, and Mr. Borden proposed that the joint appointments should commence on the 7th. It would be better to acknowledge the fact that Mr. Brenton did seek to escape speaking in company with his competitor at once, and not seek to evade it by such subterfuge. Truth will out.

Thomas Washburn of Whitley has been nominated as democratic candidate for Senator from Whitley, Kosciusko, and Noble. Mr. Washburn is a thorough democrat and a popular man; and we hope may be elected. Kosciusko has been rather a dark and benighted county, but we hope is not now strong enough, whig to overcome the democratic majority of Whitley and Noble.

ANOTHER CIRCUS.—We shall have another circus—Spaulding, Rogers, and Van Orton's—here on Monday the 14th inst. The company is said to be a first rate one, and includes several female equestrians of acknowledged ability, who cannot fail to draw a large audience.

Chalk in Louisville, Ohio.—We learn by the Liverpool Argus that great excitement and alarm exists in that place in consequence of the sudden death, supposed by children, of Mr. E. S. Linn, his wife, and an infant daughter; also, Mr. Waleney, a young man who had attended on Mr. Linn.

Our citizens should be careful in their diet, and have all purgatives, salts, emollient water &c. promptly removed from their premises. Prevention is better than cure.

This number completes the 11th volume of the Sentinel. We merely allude to the fact, to give our subscribers a hint that it is a very suitable time for them to be squaring up their accounts and commencing anew—a duty which some of them have neglected for years, and others have never made any attempt at performing since they first subscribed—if the act of taking a paper without paying for it can be called subscribing.

We shall wait a week or two, and see what effect this article may have on the consciences of the delinquents. If they do not show some signs of reform and repentance, we shall strike off the names of some of the most hardened sinners, and either send their accounts to an office for collection, or publish them in the paper—perhaps both.

The beginning of the new volume will be a good time to commence subscriptions. Under the new postage law, papers will now be carried in the mail free of postage to any office in the country, and for 5 cents per quarter to any office out of the country, and within 50 miles of Fort Wayne, so that the present is a very favorable time to subscribe. We shall have room on our books for a number of new subscribers, to fill the places of the reproaches we intend striking off, and would be obliged if some of our friends would exert themselves a little and induce their neighbors to subscribe. The circulation and usefulness of the Sentinel might be greatly extended by these means.

We are informed that as Rev. Mr. Brenton's prospects were, he becomes what the Times would term more "arrogant and blustery ring." Some of his late speeches consisted almost entirely of slang and abuse against his competitor—Bad sign.

Will Mr. Brenton Resign?—The Times they were "outs" has become an "obsolete idea" now they are "ins". There is a great difference between us all know between being an office of the U. S. Land office or this place, in holder and no office-seeker. Still we think if there has been so great, so radical a change in that important part of the whig platform—that must remain in the structure, which relates to the "spoils," the friends of the Revenue should have notified the public, so as to explain away the apparent inconsistency of an U. S. office holder being a whig candidate for Congress.

We refer the question to the editor of the Times, for a full and "by authority" explanation.

[Ed. of Sentinel.]

The Indiana State Sentinel, of 21st inst., asserts with great confidence that the Rev. James Brenton, the Register of the Land Office at Fort Wayne in that State, is in favor of the "unconditional repeal of the Fugitive Slave laws." If this is true, we hope the fact will be made known to Mr. Stewart, the Secretary of the Interior, who we have no doubt would instinctively displace him. No such "higher law" party should be either countenanced by the Government or trusted by the people. We are to have a severe conflict during the coming session of Congress, between the friends of the Union and the advocates of succession or separation. To defeat the latter, would be unquestionably sound Union men should be elected to Congress, or retained in any office under the Government, of either honor, profit or trust.—Louisville Courier, Ph.

Later for Texas.—The N. O. Pharmacy of the 17th, has advices from Galveston to the 13th, and from Brownsville to the 21st. The report in some of the interior counties are suffering for want of rain.

The Galveston Citizen states that McDonald charged with stealing several thousand dollars from Mr. Tare, at San Antonio, has been made to exonerate himself of the theft and discharge the money, by a stratagem—a ruse de guerre—one of the sheriff. It was agreed between the sheriff and the prisoner that the sheriff should receive one thousand dollars of the stolen money, as a consideration for aiding the thief to escape. The prisoner was to regain the remainder, and the sheriff was to provide him with a fleet horse and arms; he was released from the jail and proceeded to the place of deposit in company with the sheriff, and the money was disbursed. The thief was then re-arrested, and unless he finds some other means of escape, will doubtless go to the penitentiary for his pains. The Western Texan doubts the propriety of the sheriff's course in the matter.

Two carpenters, one named Wolf, were murdered at Rio Grande City, on the night of the 22d ult., by blows inflicted on the head with a hammer, while sleeping in a small house rented by them. No traces of the perpetrators of this horrible deed have as yet been discovered.

Oregon.—Oregon papers have been received up to the 10th of May.

The accounts from the gold mines on the Klamath all agree that the mines will yield a fair equivalent to the miners. Some beautiful specimens had been discovered, weighing from five dollars to seventy-five dollars.

Gen. Lane, is canvassing for election as delegate to the next Congress.

There were an abundance of ripe strawberries at Portland on the 8th of May.

The newly discovered coal region is said to be inexhaustible, and coal can be delivered on the banks of the Columbia river at less than ten dollars per ton.

The Western Star says that the last steamer brought quite a number of passengers from the States. Mr. Preston, Surveyor General for Oregon, and family, and Mr. Nelson, Chief Judge of Oregon, are among the number.

Also, five female teachers.

William Kendall, convicted of murder, was executed at Salem on the 18th of April, amid a large concourse of spectators.

Fort Wayne, June 30th, 1851.

Mr. Editor:

You will please to withdraw my name as a candidate for Congress in this district.—My name was announced at the solicitation of many friends,—not wishing to force myself upon the people or any of them of this district, contrary to their feelings or desires, but always ready and willing to abide their decision in such matters. I have found, so far as my observation extended, that the issue was party and spoils between the two great gentlemen in the field. I therefore, to enable them to show to the dear people the talents of which they so long have had imaginary possession, respectfully retire from the contest. I shall ever be grateful to those who placed my name in honorable a position, and hope to have the pleasure of seeing them at some future time.

JNO. B. DUBOIS.

Mr. Editor:

I wish you would explain how it is that a whig Register of the Land Office is allowed by the whig party to be its candidate for Congress in this district. I remember to have heard a good deal, a few years ago, about efforts being made by the whig party in Congress to prevent office holders interfering in any way in elections, and if I am not mistaken Mr. Clay once introduced a bill into the Senate to secure that object, and the whigs were unanimous in their approval of the measure. Now I should like to know why, if this was good doctrine a few years ago, it is not good doctrine now. Will you have the good news, Mr. Editor, to explain this matter; or if it should be a little too much for you, will you be kind enough to pass it along to the Editor of the Times;—he has a great reputation for explaining inconsistencies in whig doctrines, and having had much occasion for exercising himself in that task, is supposed to have become very expert at it. Hoping that either one or both of you will throw some light on this dark subject. I remain yours, very respectfully,

[Q. in a Corner.]

"P." "Q." is a little too hard. The question beats as entirely. It may possibly be that the whig party is becoming "progressive," and that what was good whig doctrine when

BATTLES WITH THE KABYLES IN ALGERIA.—Terrible Struggles.—The African war (writes a Paris correspondent) has opened with severe loss and dreadful carnage. In the advance of a column five or six thousand strong on Djigelli, Colonel Arnaud is surrounded and made a prisoner. Still we think if there has been so great, so radical a change in that important part of the whig platform—that must remain in the structure, which relates to the "spoils," the friends of the Revenue should have notified the public, so as to explain away the apparent inconsistency of an U. S. office holder being a whig candidate for Congress.

We refer the question to the editor of the Times, for a full and "by authority" explanation.

[Ed. of Sentinel.]

The Indiana State Sentinel, of 21st inst., asserts with great confidence that the Rev. James Brenton, the Register of the Land Office at Fort Wayne in that State, is in favor of the "unconditional repeal of the Fugitive Slave laws." If this is true, we hope the fact will be made known to Mr. Stewart, the Secretary of the Interior, who we have no doubt would instinctively displace him.

Will Mr. Brenton Resign?—The Times they were "outs" has become an "obsolete idea" now they are "ins". There is a great difference between us all know between being an office of the U. S. Land office or this place, in holder and no office-seeker. Still we think if there has been so great, so radical a change in that important part of the whig platform—that must remain in the structure, which relates to the "spoils," the friends of the Revenue should have notified the public, so as to explain away the apparent inconsistency of an U. S. office holder being a whig candidate for Congress.
